

Center for Restorative Programs
Formerly the San Luis Valley Victim-Offender Reconciliation Program

Mediation Training

Program Philosophy: Center for Restorative Programs brings young offenders, victims, and the community together to search for reconciliation and to “make things right.” We also serve 1) Schools: training and intervention for conflict resolution, mediation, restorative discipline, and bullying prevention; and 2) Families: parent-teen mediation

Core Training:

The Center for Restorative Programs will offer a mediation training in February 2010. The Core Training, which covers the basic tenets of mediation and related communication skills, is open to anyone age 16 or older. Bilingual mediators are especially needed. Space is limited and registrations are taken on a first-come, first-served basis. Trainees must attend both days.

Friday, February 5, 2010, 1 pm - 8 pm
Saturday, February 6, 2010, 8 am - 5pm
Hospice del Valle Conference Room - 514 Main St, Alamosa, CO

Volunteer Options:

Trainees who complete the Core Training are invited to consider volunteering with our program, which requires further orientation and training opportunities.

Cost of Registration for Core Training: $75

Fee includes training manual and 3 light meals. Discounted registration may be available, especially for volunteers

Trainers: Alice Price, Paula Medina, Claire McArdle, and Joanna Visser

Special thanks to Hospice del Valle for facility use.
